PETTY THIEVES PINCHING PENNIES

Petty thieves have been stirring in Farmington the last week, breaking into three business houses Sunday night, but securing little or nothing but a few pennies, or small change of which they stripped the several money drawers. Monday, the City Cash store and the Roberts barber shop were the places broken into Sunday night, articles being effected from the rear in cash instances. Some candy was also thought to be missing from Mrs. King's, and from the summer in which the thieves worked indicates local juvenile talent. There are a number of youth in this city who would be capable of such crimes, and unless they speedily reform they are sure to receive a post-graduate course in crime in the state penitentiary. While the Times does not know that any particular ones are suspected of this crime, they are sure to find behind the bars if such crime is persisted in. Farmington News.

RILL GRAY TIMBER WOLF NEAR WINGARTEN

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, R. W. Basley of near Wingarten killed a gray female timber wolf that measured 4 feet, 6 inches in length from tip to tip and 2 feet, 5 inches in height. The animal was in a timbered wood near Mr. Essig's house where his dog scented it and soon brought it to bay. It whined the dog and followed it over into the field near where Mr. Essig was working. He secured his gun and crawled in among the "scrub" the first shot. It was a female and probably several hours of game this morning. On Monday morning another female wolf was brought to bay by the dogs in Mr. Essig's field, but as it was after dark he was unable to get close enough to it to shoot it. His hawks were also busy in the neighborhood.

Tony Lutz, who sells coal ash, Mr. Essig follows the self-same route to his quarry, where he observed the second one. He says that those hawks always follow ravines at night in that locality this summer, and that nearly all the birds in that section have been killed by them.

Among those who have had large numbers of birds this summer are Goss, Goff, Chas. Danner, Chas. Kocher, Jim Hartung, and Lynn Thomas—all about 25 having been killed. Many had thought that dogs had been doing the mischief.

He said now that they knew for sure what had been doing harm with the family, they intended to keep hunting for the wolves until the old male and the young ones have been destroyed.

STATE EXPENSES CONTINUE TO SOAR

During the general session of the legislature Governor Hyde insisted that there be a special session of the legislature for the passage of good roads legislation in order to make operative the sixty million dollar hard surface road bonds amendment which was carried by a heavy majority in November. But as the time for calling the special session came near, the governor, thru a call-up of his legislative program of the general session and because of the heat that went up all over the state against his administration for piling up the tax payers and for raising up the taxes in the state to an unprecedented degree, caused him to incorporate other subjects for legislation which will result in a lot of unnecessary additional expense for the state.

The governor is keeping up his policy of piling up needless expense for the tax payers and fallowing for more of his unwise and super-expensive legislation that beclouds the Constitution.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

The regular teachers' examination will be held at Marble Hill, August 5 and 6. All teachers who have not completed their grades will be required to do so at this time.

Examination on the reading and circle work will be given on Saturday in the afternoon.

Wilbur M. Welker, County Superintendent.

HYDE HEARS PEOPLE'S ROAR

Governor Hyde heard the roar from the people because of his excessive increases of taxes and his now making frantic efforts to have the legislature reduce them.

It was planned that the special session should be called to consider necessary road legislation and nothing else, but road laws have been lost sight of in the scramble to repeal and patch up the unpopular measures passed by the regular session.

The governor or now even approves the reduction of the income tax, when he vetoed such a measure at the regular session.

The quicker this session of the legislature adjourns the better off will be the people of Missouri—Butler Democrat.

OUR SONS IN HEAVEN'S GARDEN

On the 20th instant, and father of the late James E. Farnum, Esq., of nearby, died June 21, 1921. He was 77 years old and was known by all to be a truthful and faithful citizen.

He married Mrs. Mary Ervin, and to them 8 children were born, 3 boys and 5 girls. Two have already gone before. Now dear father has joined them around that great white throne where parting will be no more.

Dear father, we miss you. You were a sincere follower of Christ and a strong pillar of the Free Will Baptist church. Many years ago you held out faithfully until the Lord said, "Come up higher" and he stepped out of this old, fragile, some would call it, house where sickness never came.

Dear father, we are so lonely without you. When we go to our dear old home, we cannot hear dear old father's footsteps coming to welcome us home. We know, dear father, you cannot come to us, but you died so peacefully and we know if we are brave workers for Jesus we can meet you some sweet day where parting words can never be spoken and where sickness, pain and death can never come.

Dear mother, sisters and brothers, this is a great consolation, but our loss is heaven's gain.

Dear father, we miss you.

We know you are gone. But we know you are not alone. For the Son of God is with you.

At His bidding we must go.

Our work may not be finished.

When He calls us we must go.

Where his humble work is over.

Not the smile of dear old daddy.

Shall meet us any more.

We loved him oh so dearly.

But God has loved him more.

And has sweetly called him.

Over on the golden shore.

His Loving Daughters, Opa and Opa.

LITTLE VINE

Health and happiness are to be had at this writing. It has been so hot and dry that men and beast have suffered as well as vegetation. The early vine has been badly injured.

W. M. Patterson is very sick and several others are ill this month.

Mary Jones died Friday night at 8 o'clock and her body was laid to rest in the Fairview Cemetery Saturday afternoon by the side of her husband, who was buried one month ago last. Willie Francis conducted the funeral services.

Pete Grimsler will teach the Little Vine school the missing year.

A. P. Sherman has been down in the vicinity of Pacific last week and says they talked 25 miles down there but it doesn't look like it here and can't be unless it rains soon. He says the ears of dried blackberries there are big and plenty of diggers.

Willie Francis will preach at Little Vine the fourth Saturday night and Sunday at 11. Everybody invited.

Never is scarce and I will ring off.
